Next Week's Worship, Sunday, November 29, 2026, 1st Sunday of Advent

Mark 13:24-37, *Isaiah 64:1-9; "Waiting in Hope"; Pastor Matt is preaching.
The prophet Isaiah pleads to God to tear open the heavens and come down to earth and be among God's people. The passage is part of a prayer of lament, acknowledging the disobedience of the people while confessing God alone can bring healing and wholeness to the people. This lament is both a cry of despair and an expression of hope, that the God who in ages past delivered God's people from danger, will restore their relationship once again. As you wait upon the coming of Christ, what do you hope for?

Prayer of Confession

Gracious heavenly Father, our holy and omnipotent God; we have so much to be thankful for that we forget to be thankful for anything! Yet moments like this help us to realize how we fall short of what you have designed us for. The very ones we complain about we should love with your agape love. We need your forgiveness as we gather to worship you. We need your forgiveness as we return to our daily lives. Help us to seek your perfect will for us. Help us seek your will just as your Son does to this day and will forever! For he is the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is because of him that we have every hope in our prayers. In his name we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!
Thanks be to God!

Passing of the Peace

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.
The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

Please greet one another with the peace of Christ.
