

Gathering Around the Word

Prelude "Spirit of God"

Welcome

Call to Worship

On this day of Pentecost, as we worship,

May God pour out his great Spirit upon us.

May the power and promise of that day long ago,

Renew us and our church on this Pentecost day.

In our worship, may our hearts be set afire with enthusiasm,

And may our lives glow with energy and courage as we live the good news of new life.

Prayer of Confession

Heavenly Father; your son has told us that where two or more are gathered in his name, that Jesus, our brother is with us. Yet, even then, we sin. Father, our sin blinds us. Our sin hurts us all. Our sin separates us from you, our maker, who loves us like no other. We are so blind, we don't know how far off the path we have wandered. We are like lost sheep on the road to Sheol. Lord help us. We need you and the forgiveness you alone can offer, through your son, our savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God!

Passing of the Peace

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.
The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

Please greet one another with the peace of Christ.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

John 3:1-17, *Isaiah 6:1-8; "Send Me"

In a vision, Isaiah is taken before the throne of God where he has an amazing experience: a winged seraph takes a burning coal from the altar and touches Isaiah's mouth with it. Instead of burning him, it purified him. Free from sin and guilt, Isaiah was not ready to answer God's call. "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" "Here I am; send me!" Forgiven and free in Christ, we, too, are ready to serve. Where is God calling you?
